Subject: Interpreters

This request asked how much the SFO spent on real-time interpreters in the year 2013/14, and how much was spent specifically on sign language interpreters?

The SFO identified spend of £570 on real-time interpreters in 2013-14, and a further cost of £650 which was incurred in 2013-14 and paid for in 2014-15. None of these costs related to sign language interpretation.
