Date: November 2015

Subject: ICT & procurement

This request asked a number of questions about procurement and ICT services. The information that could be released is shown below together with the questions.

If another organisation routinely manages procurement and contracts on behalf of your organisation, please could you provide me with its name:

The Serious Fraud Office manages its own procurement and contracts. Where possible, services may be procured through the government’s Crown Commercial Service. More information is available at www.gov.uk by searching for ‘crown commercial service’.

If your organisation routinely manages procurement and contracts on behalf of another organisation(s), please could you provide me with their names:

The SFO does not routinely manage procurement and contracts on behalf of another organisation.

If your organisation handles its own procurement and contracts, please could you provide me with a list of all of your current contracts for ICT services, with the following information for each one:

Contract name/short description	Service Desk Support Contract	Software Support Service
Supplier	Capita	RAVN
Start date (or last renewal date, if applicable)	2014	2014
End date	2019	2016
If this contract was called off a central framework agreement (e.g. from the Crown Commercial Service, G-Cloud, etc.) please say which one:	Buying Solutions Framework Agreement Number RM717	G-Cloud 5 Framework Agreement

As part of our transparency obligations, the SFO also publishes monthly information on procurement spend over £25,000 on our website at <http://www.sfo.gov.uk/about-us/transparency/procurement-spend-over-25,000-.aspx>. This includes the SFO’s monthly spend on both suppliers mentioned above.
